TUESDAY MORNING, NOV. 12, 1859.

JENNY LIND.-The Louisville, Demo crat has a good anecdote of Jenny. At Bremen, it appears after a performance she became aware of an intention or the part of the crowd to draw her in her carriage.

As she desired to avoid the annov ance, she requested the manager, who was a corpulent unwieldy bulk of humanity, to precede her in her own carriage which was in waiting, while she would slip off in some private conveyance. Jenny's carringe had hardly moved when it was invested by a band of students, who, in apite of the remonstrances of the driver, unhitched the horses, and attached themselves to the vehicle, dragged it along with shouts of trinmph.

The complaisant big gentleman in the inside, believing this demonstration to be intended as a compliment to himself for having secured the services of Miss Lind. While congratulating himself or this evidence of his immense popularity. the carriage draw up before the hotel, and the manager descended, bowing and smiling under a profuse chower of elegant boquets, which rained upon him from all directions. When the bloods discovered that, instead of the wrial form of Miss Lind, they had been hauling three hundred and fifty pounds of solid masculine ticely through the muddy streets, their jage knew no bounds Their shoots of admination turned to shouts of revenge. They rushed upon the only gentleman to mob him, but he succeeded in toddling into the hotel nearly dead with fright, just in time to save his bacon.

MEXICAN BOUNDARY COMMISSION. Advices from the Boundary Commission have been received to Oct. 10. The party was still at San Autonio, and as the progress of the train would necessarily be so slow as to render improbable its arrival at Et. Paso at the stipulated time, Mr. Bartlett had determined to start with thirty-five picked men and proceed directly to the appointed place, leaving the main body to follow more leisurely. 111

We are requested to state, for the benefit of the many persons in this city who have friends in the Boundary Commission, that Mr. Pardett has made arrangements with the Postmaster at Sar Antonia to forward, by the Government or other expresses, all letters directed to members of the Commission at El Paso which are post-paid. This is necessary, as the mail route terminates at San An tonio. Letters should be directed to the "Mexican Boundary Commission, E Paso, via San Autonio, Texas,"--- Nat.

An Elopement among the Green Mountains .-- A correspondent of the Mail wri ting from Ladlow, Vermont, under date of Nov. 4, says:

An elopement come off here a few days since, which caused no little merriment in this region, and will serve to show the true grit of the Green Mountain girls. Mr. G. had paid his addreses to a miss D, for some months without opposition from any quarter. All at once the lady's father flady refused Mr. G. his house. In this state of affairs Miss D. resolved on something desperate, and putting on her Sumlay toggery went out to make some calls, the most important of which was at the station house, where sho called for a ticket to Rudand, Mr. P.'s place of residence. Arriving at Rutland, she proceeded at once to Mr. G.'s boarding house and quietly informed him of the state of affairs at home, and that she had come to get married and be married she would that very night or never. Mr. G. finding all arguments uscless "caved in " and the thing was did.-While the marriage ceremony was being performed at Rutland, a pair of boots being propelled round this village with great velocity. The fury of the fady's futher was in those hoots. He had missed his daughter, and was very busy "rapping up" his neighbors to make inquiries for her, with little success, till he called on the ticket-master, who informed him that the missing one had taken a ticket für

Author of the Mormon Bible .-- The New England Puritan states that at a public meeting hold lately in Cherry Valley, Judge Campbell said:

Rev. Solomon Spaulding, one of the carliest perceptors of the academy of Cherry Valley, was the actual composer of most of what is known as the Mormon Bible. He wrote it during a period of delicate health, to beguile some of his weary hours, and also with a design to offer it for publication as a romance.---Dortor Robt. Campbell, Jate of Cherry Valley, and foster father of the first Mrs. Gram of the Nestorian mission, calling some years since upon Mr. Spaulding, had the manuscript of this notable book shown to him, and was also informed by Mr. Spaulding that he had hopes of reaping some pecuniary advantage from it for himself and family. Mr. Spaulding has been dead some years, though it is believed that his wife is still living in the United States. How it passed from the possession of his family into the hands of Joe Smith, it is probable that Mrs. S. could tell.

THE REPORT OF U. S. TROOPS BEING

Ordered to Boston .- The Hoston Journal of Wednesday has the following in relation to the late rumors: Our dispateh from Wushington yesterday contradicted the report that six hundred troops had been ordered to Doston, to sustain the enforcement of the Fugitive Slave Law. The excitement which has been kindled in our midst, in regard to this matter, it will thereby be seen, was entirely unnecessary and groundless.-The whole amount of the matter is just this and nothing more. We learn from the most reliable authority, that two companies of the 3d Regiment of Artillery were ordered to Boston in 1848, at the close of the Mexican War. They came here, and not finding suitable accommodations, were ordered to Newport, R. I. There they remained until the late troubles in Florida, when they were ordered South. Their services being no longer required in Florida, they have tember, eighteen hundred been ordered to their original destination, Boston Hurbor. But nince the orders were issued, it has been found impracti cable to have their quarters in readiness, and they have consequently been ordered to Newport, where they will remain for the present. From these simple acrangements for carrying out the army orders of two years standing, this excitement has undoubtedly arisen .-The report in regard to the "six hundred troops," unquestionably has reference to the several companies ordered South to reinforce Gen. Brooke in putting down the Comanche Indians.

Death of an Authoress. On Thursday morning, Mrs. Bell Martin; the unther of a novel entitled "Julia Howard," and published under the name of Mrs. Martin Bell, died at the Union-place Hotel in this city. She had only arrived in this country about ten days previous, but was landed from the vessel in a very weak state, from the fever following a premature delivery, which accurred on shipboard. Mrs. Martin was the daughter of one of the wealthiest commoners of England, and the owner of immense estates in Ireland. She came to this country, we believe, on literary grounds entirely. She is also the author of several works, most of which are written in French. Her remains will be temporarily deposited in a vanit, but are to be removed to England at a convenient time....N. Y. Succine.-Mr. Sawlton, of New Lon don, Ct., 35 years of age, leaped from the steamer Worcester as she was making the passage of the Sound from New York to Norwich, about eleven p'clock on Friday night, and was drowned. The deceased was subject to fits of insanity. The body was not recovered. Mr. S. was a single man. We learn that he had been in New Yord for medical advice. He declined going down to supper with his brother, who was with him, and when the latter returned, he could find nothing but his bat.

WASHING, BLEACHING AND CLEANSLING FLUID, the greatest labor-saving nather the stacovered. By its use, washing totthiors and boards are entirely dispensed with, and not one quarter the labor is required to do the washing of a family.

The Fluid is a chemical compound of sufficient strength to extract all foreign substances from the cloth, by simply boiling a small quantity of it with the clothes, and without the slightest injury to the most delicate fabric.
The expense is not more than that of the not nordinarily used, and besides this it will be seen that the gene wear and tear of clothing consequent upon the old method of hard rubbing upon a board, and the use of the pomuling barrel, is wholly avoided, and an immease saving is thus made. It is emplitually the fenale's friend.
